

MI SC Anger Management Course 2006

What is Anger Management?

Anger management is more than learning to manage your anger.

It is a forum where you can learn about yourself and how to change what isn't working.

It is also a valuable opportunity to learn strategies and models that give you alternatives to your current ways of dealing with difficult issues.

This course teaches you techniques and methods that can change your present beliefs.

Anger management is about developing a better life for yourself and those around you.

The 8 Week Course

Includes:

- How to recognise and then acknowledge anger
- Learning techniques for resolving conflict
- Developing skills to manage anger
- Learning ways to help understand yourself better
- Ideas on how to build relationships
- Tools for dealing with your anger
- Developing an understanding of alternatives to what is happening now.

Course Facilitator: Richard Lech

Richard Lech has 10 years experience counselling, specialising in men's issues in recent years. Richard also has 25 years experience as a TAFE and Secondary School Teacher.
